

Celebrating 100 Years! 1909-2009

PUCE Weekly News

January 15, 2009

NO SCHOOL this Monday in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

School Directories are being sent home today—one per family. Check with your oldest student for your copy. Please accept Lisa's apologies in advance for any errors that may not have been caught.

The PUCE faculty and staff, along with some others, have formed a floor hockey team and will be participating in the PUC intramural program. This means they get to play against energetic young college students! Their first game is tonight in our gymnasium. If you are interested in joining the team (running, colliding, straining, gasping), call James Dick at 965-2459.

Project Plumpy Nut will be introduced on Monday, January 26, at an all-school assembly during the lunch hour. This is a fund-raising effort to bring relief to malnourished children in Africa. The students in charge have written a detailed letter of explanation that will be sent home next Thursday. Please watch for the letter as it has important information regarding lunch on Monday, January 26.

Pennies for Peace is an ongoing opportunity for your students to help students in Afghanistan and Pakistan. Send your loose pennies with your student to drop in the giant bottle in the school lobby. The money will be sent to the Central Asian Institute, a non-profit that provides community base education to the children in those countries.

Parent Participation logs are available on RenWeb under the Newsletter and Downloads tab. You may also skip the paper step and log your hours directly into RenWeb by clicking the Parent Service Hours tab. When you get to the cell asking for verification, add the name of the PUCE staff member that would be able to vouch for your service.

Next week's lunch menu will be Week 1: Ravioli, Haystacks and Potatoes.
