

Celebrating 100 Years! 1909-2009

PUCE Weekly News

March 5, 2009

Teacher Appreciation Assembly is tomorrow, March 6, at 11:00 a.m. in the PUCE Gym.

Psst! Sources are quoted as saying this gentleman is one of the best preachers they've ever heard.

United States Senate Chaplain, Barry C. Black, will be speaking three times this Saturday at Pacific Union College for their 2009 Heubach Lectureship Series. All three lectures will take place in the Pacific Union College Church Sanctuary. Mr. Black will speak at the 10:00 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. worship services and then again at 5:00 p.m. There will be a book signing following the final lecture and Barry Black's autobiography will be sold at a special price of $20.

7th and 8th graders are invited to play at the PUCE gym this Saturday night from 6:30 – 9:00 p.m. Come and enjoy basketball, other games and homemade ice cream. Please bring a snack to share. The evening is hosted by the PUC Church Earliteen group.

Babysitter Training class takes place this Sunday, March 8, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., here at the school. Payment of $55 is due by Friday, March 6. Make checks payable to PUC Elementary.

Parent Club Meeting Monday, March 9, at 2:00 p.m.

There will be a live, nationwide simulcast entitled Revolutionary Parenting, held at Pacific Union College Church on Saturday, March 14, from 8:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. Learn from the likes of George Barna, Dr. Jim Burns, Dr. John Townsend, and Steve and Valerie Bell. $15/person and $25/per couple. Childcare and lunch provided with admission. For more information and pre-registration call 965-7297.

Angwin Hospitality: Through the Seasons with Kellie Lind, is a series of four seminars hosted by the PUC Church. The first, entitled Spring Hospitality: Easy Cooking and Table Settings, is Sunday, March 15, from 3:00-4:30 p.m. in the Fireside Room. Kellie Lind is a long-time Angwin resident known to many for her talent and flair for beauty and good food.

If your student did not bring home a See's candy fliers you may pick one up in the office. Orders are due Friday, March 20 (this is earlier than originally announced).

Next week's lunch menu is Week 2:

Pita Pizza
Macaroni
Asian Entrée
Vegeburgers
