PUC Weekly News

November 13, 2008

Missoula Children's Theater presents The Princess and the Pea, performed by PUC Elementary students tomorrow afternoon, November 14, at 2:30 p.m. and Saturday night, November 15, at 7:30 p.m. in Dauphinee Chapel, located on the Pacific Union College campus (see below for directions). Tickets for the performances are $5.00 for adults, $3.00 for children 5-12 and free for ages 4 and below. Tickets will be available 30 minutes before show time and one ticket is good for both performances.

BRING TREATS: If you are attending the Saturday Missoula performance, please bring a plate of cookies for a small reception after the show. There will be a table set up in the lobby of Dauphinee Chapel to receive your cookies.

NEEDED! Parents to host at the reception table after the Saturday evening Princess and the Pea performance. Please contact Christy Otterbeck (965-9365) or let Lisa know that you are available. This is a good opportunity for parents looking for volunteer time.

Cookie dough orders will be here on Monday and must be picked up from our gymnasium. It is imperative that orders be collected as we do not have cold storage to keep things from spoiling. Orders will be ready by 3:00 p.m. Happy delivering!

Wondering where the latest school directory is? If you need contact information for classmates, look in RenWeb under Family Directory. The information is organized by classroom. The handy-little-booklet directory is still in the works.

Next week's lunch menu is Week 1: Pizza, Ravioli, Haystacks and Potatoes

Directions to Dauphinee Chapel: From Howell Mountain Road in Angwin turn on LaJota Drive, the street next to the College running track, and continue on up LaJota as it curves around to the left. This will place you beside a large dormitory named Winning Hall. Park by the dormitory and enter through the glass double doors. Dauphinee chapel is through these doors to the right.
