

Celebrating 100 Years! 1909-2009

PUCE Weekly News

October 23, 2008

Cookie and gift order forms are due tomorrow, October 24.

Next week, October 27-31, is our fall Week of Prayer. In celebration of our school Centennial, each day will be presented by a different family that has had prior connections with PUCE. The theme is "Making choices for God at PUCE". On Monday through Thursday the meetings will be held in two sessions each day; lower graders (K-4), then upper graders. The first session will be from 12:15 - 12:50 in the 4th grade classroom. The second session will be from 12:50 to 1:30 in the 7th grade classroom. On Friday morning the whole school will do a joint meeting in the Gym starting at 8:05 am. For music we are singing songs that have been popular during the 100 years that PUCE has educated students in Angwin, including old favorites like "He Lives", and "The Captain Calls for You". Mr. Hunt and the praise band will help lead out in the music.

All students and their families are invited to the PUC Church Slime Time Fall Festival on Friday, October 31, from 4-8 p.m. in the Fireside Room. There will be games, food and gobs of fun. Costumes are welcome! Free Admission!

Our first musical performance is Saturday, November 8, at the 10 a.m. service at the Pacific Union College Church. The 6-8th grade band students, 3-4th grade choir students and K-2 choir students will be performing. The band should wear black and white and the choir should wear church clothes.

Principal Dick is looking into the possibility of an all-school Ski Day where the entire student body gets bussed up to the mountains for the day. The cost of such a journey would be about $2,000. Are there any interested parties that would like to underwrite this event? Could be a pretty fun adventure . . . talk with Dr. Dick for details.

Still looking for: volunteers to help with a phone-a-thon we would like to do to gather alumni addresses. We are creating a data base of previous PUC Elementary students. The phone-a-thon would involve time at the school in the evening during the next two weeks and is an opportunity for parents that cannot volunteer time during the day.
